The Society of Polymer Science, India is pleased to invite nominations for Professor M. Santappa Award for the year 2019-20.

PROFESSOR M. SANTAPPA AWARD

This award is in honour of one of our very distinguished polymer scientists who pioneered polymer science research in India. The award recognizes outstanding research contributions to polymer science and technology made in India during the preceding ten years. The award will carry a cash prize of Rs 50,000/- along with a citation. Nominations may be sent to spsi.msa@gmail.com, preferably forwarded by the head of the institution. Self nominations will also be accepted. Only soft copies need to be sent; it is preferable that all the material is submitted as a single PDF file. For further details, please consult the link: <http://www.spsi.co.in/files/sawards.php>

The award for the year 2019-20 was to be announced in December, 2020 and presented during the MACRO 2020 Conference of the SPSI, which was to be held in Indian Institute of Technology, Guwahati. Owing to the COVID 19 pandemic, the Conference has been postponed and the fresh dates of this Conference will be communicated later; however, the announcement of the 2019-20 awardees will be made before the end of this year and the award lectures will be delivered during the meeting, whenever it is held. The nominations for the award should be sent latest by October 31, 2020. For further details and the format for submission of the nomination, please refer to the SPSI webpage: www.spsi.co.in
